

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

Father Bill Fisher, Pastor

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time - July 12, 2020

Our Holy Mass

Welcome to our new pastor, Father Bill Fisher! He will celebrate his first Mass at St. John the Baptist this Sunday.

We are pleased to have him at our Croatian parish and look forward to sharing our traditions.

Last week, July 5, our Mass was cancelled because we learned a previous Mass attendee had tested positive for COVID-19. Our church secretary, Phyllis Hampton, worked with the health department and followed all guidelines, including contacting those in close contact. We pray for this person and all who suffer from COVID-19.

To protect the health and safety of all, you must wear a mask to cover both your nose and mouth.

Please maintain distancing during Communion and as you leave the church. Do not congregate outside of church.

Although Father Bill will be on a long-planned vacation during August, he has asked Father Ron Livojevich to offer the weekly Holy Mass in his absence. This will be at 9 a.m. on Sundays.

There will be no 8 a.m. Thursday or 5:15 p.m. Saturday Masses until September.

Lord help me to remember that nothing is going to happen to me today that You and I together can't handle.

Amen.

St. Kateri Tekakwitha

Celebrate the feast day of St. Kateri Tekakwitha on July 14. The first Native American to be recognized as a saint by the Catholic Church, she was canonized by Pope Benedict XVI in 2012.

Our deepest sympathy and prayers go to the family of Bernard Joseph Jaksetic.

Mr. Jaksetic, 90, died July 4. He attended St. John the Baptist Catholic School. He served in the U.S. Army during the Korean Conflict and later worked at Commercial National Bank.

Bernie, as he was known to friends, was married to his wife, Marilyn, for 63 years.

The funeral was July 9 at St. John's.
