~Keeping In Touch~

He is Risen! Happy Easter to everyone!

I hope and pray that the coming days of Easter will truly be a blessed time for each and every one of you. This coming Tuesday, I will be flying to Rome for meetings. Several days will be dedicated for the Missionaries of Mercy meetings. One of our Missionaries of Mercy here in the United States got on the radar of the CEO of Delta Airlines. To make a long story short, when the CEO learned about the meetings in Rome he informed us that Delta Airlines would cover the cost of our air travel to and from Rome. In addition to this, three of Delta's planes will have printed on them "Proud Carriers of the Papal Missionaries of Mercy, United States of America." I was overwhelmed by this great act of charity. On Divine Mercy Sunday, we will concelebrate the Mass with the Holy Father. I want you to know that I will offer that Mass for all of you. We will also have an audience with the Holy Father on Monday. Please pray that my travels will be safe and the meetings will be fruitful. Rest assured that I carry you all in my prayers.

Blessings in Christ and St. Augustine,
Fr. Joseph Arsenault, SSA, Pastor
