~Keeping In Touch~

Greetings from the Vatican! I have arrived in Rome safe and sound. I have also settled in and adjusted to the time zone. After picking up the materials and pass that I need for the meetings of the Missionaries of Mercy, I am ready and looking forward to those meetings which will start soon. I already had two meetings with the Holy See officials, which were very productive ...and beyond my expectations. On Friday morning, I had the privilege of concelebrating Mass with several of my brother Missionaries of Mercy from the USA at the Divine Mercy Shrine here in Rome. Don't forget that on Divine Mercy Sunday, I will be concelebrating Mass with Pope Francis. I will offer that Mass for all of you.

Blessings in Christ and St. Augustine,

Fr. Joseph Arsenault, SSA, Pastor

St John the Baptist parish would like to congratulate Bennett Richard James Hampton (grandson of Phyllis and Richard Hampton) on receiving his First Holy Communion and Confirmation at the Easter Vigil Mass. May the Holy Spirit continue to sanctify and guide him in all areas of his life.

The parish would also like to welcome our new parishioner Kristen Kolleda to partake in the sacramental life of our parish and to be an essential part of our community and church.
