Keeping In Touch

In the life of a priest, you never know what surprises await you ... some good and some not so good. I want to share with you this week one of those good surprises that happened to me a couple of weeks ago. I was just arriving home after a long day of meetings and office work at the chancery when my phone rang. It was one of my secretaries from the chancery. A priest had a situation that he needed to consult with me about. In a nut shell, the priest had a wedding scheduled for the next day and the couple showed up to the wedding rehearsal with a marriage license from Missouri. What could he do? After putting forward a few ideas, the best solution to this problem was to arrange to do the wedding that night in a Missouri Church. Being the one that approves marriages here in the Archdiocese, I called my counterpart in the Diocese of Kansas City-St Joseph to get his permission for a wedding to take place in their diocese that night and to find a Church that would welcome us. To spare you all the canonical issues and to make a long story short, I ended up having to do the wedding that night in a Missouri parish. From the first call about this until I was in the Church doing the wedding, one and a half hours had passed. It was a great celebration! In the life of a priest, you never know what awaits you!

Blessings in Christ and St. Augustine,
Fr. Joseph M. Arsenault, SSA, Pastor
