Keeping In Touch

As I mentioned last week, I suspected this week would be full. My suspicions were certainly true. This week has been full with meetings and getting caught up on various things. One of the meetings that I had this past week was the Wyandotte County Regional Priests meeting. I not only had to attend this meeting but I am the chair of the Region so I had to prepare the agenda and lead the meeting. In these meetings we discuss and plan various elements of the Pastoral Ministry in the region. It is always a blessing when we are able to gather together as priests! Another meeting that I had to attend this past week was a meeting that dealt with the findings of the Audit that was conducted by the Archdiocese for our parishes. The Archdiocese seeks to insure that we have the best controls and are following the best practices ensuring that we are being good stewards of the parish. It was a good meeting and we are doing great. There are some areas that we need to improve in but it is all within our ability to accomplish. I am grateful for all the wonderful people who work and volunteer in our parishes! Thank you!

Blessings in Christ and St. Augustine,
Fr. Joseph M. Arsenault, SSA, Pastor

Forgiveness 101– Free Workshops

In partnership with Forgiveness Institute KC, the Office of Evangelization will be hosting Forgiveness 101 workshops in Topeka and Johnson County in September. Chuck Jansen (founder) will be offering these workshops for pastors and parish leaders interested in learning more about the process of forgiveness. Many pastors share with us the pain of broken relationships experienced within their parish communities. This brokenness can be a deep wound that affects our lives, communities and our relationships with Christ. These workshops (and this program) are being offered as part of the diocesan year of preparation in support of parish life through the Revival: Eucharist Amazement initiative. For more information, please visit: [Forgiveness Institute KC – \[www.yeabut.org\]\(http://www.yeabut.org\)](#).
